TEACHING FOR CLE CREDIT

As a contribution to professionalism, attorneys may earn CLE credit for teaching in approved continuing legal education activities. Presentations accompanied by thorough, high-quality, readable, and carefully prepared written materials will qualify for CLE credit based on one (1) hour for each ten (10) minutes of presentation. Repeat presentations qualify for one-half of the credits available for the initial presentation. A teacher may also receive credit on an hour-for-hour basis for attending portions of the CLE activity other than those for which teaching credit is earned but may not receive both attendee credit and teaching credit for the portion he or she teaches. Attorneys who participate in panels as part of approved continuing legal education activities earn credit at the same rate as teachers.

CONTENT AND TIME REQUIREMENTS

1. North Carolina uses a 60-minute hour. That is, 60 minutes are required to equal one CLE credit hour.
2. Only the time of actual instruction counts toward CLE credit hours.
3. Question-and-answer sessions are considered actual instruction and may be included for CLE credit provided such question-and-answer sessions do not exceed 15 minutes per CLE credit hour. For example, a program approved for 4 total CLE credit hours may include up to 1 hour of questions and answers.
4. No complete CLE activity may be less than 30 minutes in length. However, a program may include individual topics of less than 30 minutes in length.
5. CLE credit, when converted from minutes to hours, will be rounded down to the nearest quarter-hour.
6. CLE credit is not given for:
 - Introductory remarks
 - Breaks
 - Business meetings
 - Personal development programs
 - Presentations on marketing a law practice or client development
 - Speeches in connection with banquets or other events that are primarily social
 - Demonstrations of services or products with intent to sell
7. Instruction in professional responsibility/ethics/professionalism may not include topics such as attorney fees, client development, communication skills, etc., except to the extent that professional responsibility is directly discussed in connection with such topics.
8. All activities, including computer programs, must be either live or interactive. No credit will be given for self-study. Video presentations must be scheduled for a minimum of three attorneys.
